

The Tracking Times

Is there value in using landmarks? YES!

Many people have heard the term “Landmarks”, but aren’t exactly sure what they are and their value.

In simple terms, a Landmark is a boundary around an office location, company yard, job site, distribution center, customer location, or any location your employees may visit. Also, if your employees take the company vehicles home, you may want to set a landmark around their house.

A Landmark captures the time when your vehicle arrives and leaves a location, how long it was stopped, how long it traveled within the landmark, and how long it idled within the landmark.

Are slower drivers profitable for your business? YES!

Did you know that monitoring the speed that your vehicles drive can be profitable to your company?

Excessive speeding can dramatically reduce fuel efficiency and increase your fuel costs, but many of us don’t realize by just how much.

Prevent downtime and breakdowns.

Easy Fleet GPS also offers tracking solutions for your assets, trailers, and equipment.

It is equally important to track your assets and equipment as it is to track your vehicles. You receive the same benefits of vehicle tracking with real-time data showing where your assets are located at any time. You can also track its use which helps you determine if you have any specific asset that is being underutilized.
